Requests to vary the details of the account to be debited must be in writing and in the terms of the operating authority from the account. Alternatively, you may stop or cancel your DDR at any time by contacting the financial institution where your account to be debited is held.

DDR dispute resolution

If you wish to dispute a DDR transaction, you can contact the financial institution where your account to be debited is held, or contact us and we'll arrange for your disputed transaction to be investigated and where appropriate, for a correction to be made.

If we're unable to resolve the dispute to your satisfaction, you should contact the financial institution where the account to be debited is held to complete and lodge a DDR Customer Claim Form.

Non-business days

If your DDR falls due on a weekend or public holiday in Sydney, we'll process it on the next business day. If you're uncertain of the date your DDR will be processed, you should contact your financial institution.

Returned or dishonoured DDRs

If your DDR is dishonoured or returned unpaid by your financial institution for any reason, we reserve the right to recover the funds from you.

Clear funds

You should ensure that you have sufficient clear funds in your account to enable the DDR to be paid by your financial institution.

Your records

We won't disclose any details of your DDR to any person or corporation unless requested to do so by law, or unless the information is required in relation to a disputed transaction.

Your account

You should be aware that some financial institutions may not allow a DDR to be processed to certain types of accounts. You should check your account details against a recent statement from your financial institution, or check with your financial institution to ensure that a DDR can be processed to your account.
