

Concessional / Non-concessional contributions

Concessional contributions are contributions made by your employer or that you make with pre-tax dollars – by salary sacrificing, for example. Non-concessional contributions include spouse contributions, Government co-contributions, and contributions you make from after-tax dollars.