Please note –

- If your investment selection is incomplete or unclear, your funds will be invested into the Suncorp Lifestage Fund based on your date of birth, for example – if you were born in 1982, your super will be invested into the Suncorp Lifestage Fund 1980-1984 fund.
- You cannot set your future investment strategy using this application form – if you want to set a different future investment strategy to your initial investment selection, you can do so by logging into your online account.

Insurance cover

As Everyday Super is designed to be MySuper compliant, we offer you Life and Total & Permanent Disability (TPD) insurance cover as part of your Everyday Super account. We call this Suncorp Lifestages insurance cover.

Please note –

- Not everyone is eligible for insurance cover – if you're in a hazardous occupation, under 15 or over age 69, you're not eligible for insurance cover with Everyday Super (if you're aged 64 or over, you'll only receive Life cover).
- If you're eligible, you'll automatically receive Suncorp Lifestages cover when you open your Everyday Super account. If you've chosen to change your insured amount or cancel your cover, we'll process this immediately and you won't be debited any insurance fees for the Suncorp Lifestages cover.
- Your Suncorp Lifestages cover won't commence until we receive your first contribution.
- Your Suncorp Lifestages cover is subject to a 'pre-existing condition' exclusion' and a 'self-inflicted act' exclusion.

In summary, under your Suncorp Lifestages cover, we won't pay any claims related to an injury, sickness, illness or symptom experienced in the last two years or a self-inflicted act (including suicide) within the first 13 months of your cover commencing, being increased or if it was reinstated after being cancelled. Please refer to the PDS and Product Guide for full details on the exclusions that apply to your insurance cover.

Don't want insurance?

That's fine – you can cancel it below. If you decide you want insurance at a later date, just log into your online account to reapply for cover and answer a simple questionnaire – no signatures or medical tests required.

Please confirm what you'd like to do with your Everyday Super insurance cover

Questionnaire for increasing insurance cover

Must be completed if you are choosing a level of cover higher than the default provided by Suncorp Lifestages cover.

Please answer the following questions to help our Insurer determine whether you're eligible to increase your insurance cover.

Please note –

If you've applied to increase your cover and are accepted for the higher amount, we'll update your insurance cover to your selected amount and we'll call it 'customised cover'. Your cover amount will no longer change with your age and the 'pre-existing conditions' exclusion will no longer apply. The 'self-inflicted act' exclusion will still apply and participation in selected 'hazardous pursuits' won't be covered by your insurance. For more information on how customised cover works and how we apply exclusions to your cover, check out the PDS and Product Guide.

Duty of disclosure

Before a contract of life insurance is entered into with the insurer, we have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter that we know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms. This duty of disclosure continues to apply until the contract is entered into. It also applies when the insurer extends, varies or reinstates a contract of life insurance.

This duty, however, doesn't require disclosure of a matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- that's of common knowledge;
- that the insurer knows, or in the ordinary course of their business, ought to know; or
- as to which compliance with the duty is waived by the insurer.

You have the same duty of disclosure and it's a condition of your membership (ie by holding an Everyday Super account) in Suncorp Everyday Super that you discharge the same duty of disclosure to us. This duty continues to apply until the Insurer notifies you that the risk has been accepted.

If you don't disclose something to us when you apply to:

- Increase your insurance cover, or
- Fix your cover after your Suncorp Lifestages age-based insurance scale falls below your insured amount, or
- Reinstate your cancelled insurance cover,

an adjustment will be made to your cover.

Your insurance cover will revert to the terms and conditions of Suncorp Lifestages cover. This means the amount of your insurance cover and TPD definition will be the one relevant to your age band and insurance fees.

The 'pre-existing condition' exclusion would apply and your claim would be assessed against this and all other exclusions. For more information about the 'pre-existing condition' and other exclusions, please refer to Are there times when we won't pay in the Everyday Super Product Guide.

Non-disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure and the insurer would not have entered into the contract if the failure had not occurred, the insurer may avoid the contract within 3 years of entering into it.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may avoid the contract at any time.

The insurer may elect not to avoid the contract but to vary it by:

- reducing the sum insured in accordance with a formula that takes into account the premium that would have been payable if you had complied with your duty of disclosure; or
- placing the insurer in the position in which it would have been in if you had complied with your duty of disclosure.

The options to vary the contract are available to the insurer while cover under the contract remains in force.

Where the contract provides death cover, the insurer may only apply (i) above and must do so within 3 years of entering into the contract.

As the contract is for insurance of your life as the insured person, any failure by you to provide information about a matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to give you insurance and, if so, on what terms, may be treated as a failure by us, as the policy owner, to comply with our duty of disclosure.
