1. About the Classic Pension and the PST

This IB relates to the following two products:

Suncorp Classic Pension

This product provides two different options (you cannot change the option you selected when you opened your account).

Lifetime option

- Pays a complying pension, monthly, for your life, or the life of your reversionary beneficiary, if you chose one when you opened your account.
- Nil benefits are payable on death.
- Withdrawals only available if you joined prior to 1 September 1999 and in limited circumstances.

CPI option

- Pays a pension, monthly, for a term of up to 25 years as selected by you when you opened your account. Depending on when you opened your account, you were able to choose whether you could make withdrawals from your account or not.
- The ability to withdraw depends on what option you had when you opened your account.
- Lump sum option available to nominated dependents.
- Payments can continue to your nominated reversionary when you die, or a lump sum will instead be paid to your chosen beneficiaries.

For both options:

- Fully indexed to inflation in July each year, as measured by the Consumer Price Index (CPI).
- Pension payments are made on or around the 14th of the month.
- Favourable social security treatment available for the Lifetime option and the CPI option (nil withdrawal option) from the Centrelink assets test.
- Tax effective income.

All customers in the Suncorp Classic Pension have been transferred by us from other products, issued by us, to this product. References to when you opened your account or similar, refer to the product from which you were transferred.

Certain elements of your account cannot now be changed including the type of pension you have, reversionary beneficiaries, length of term and withdrawal options.

Suncorp Pooled Superannuation Trust (PST)

This product is a regulated pooled superannuation trust that enables trustees of regulated superannuation funds to pay their members a complying pension for their life, or the life of their reversionary beneficiary, if they chose one when they started their account.

- Interests are held by trustees of self-managed superannuation funds who wish to pay a tax effective complying lifetime pension to their members to enable favourable social security treatment.
- Monthly pension payments for the life of the specified member of your superannuation fund, or their reversionary if one was selected by you when you opened your account.
- Pension payments are made on or around the 14th of the month.
- Requests for withdrawals will be considered by us on a case by case basis.
- Any remaining investment value, at the time of the specified member's death (or their reversionary if one has been chosen) will be paid to your fund.
- We provide this product as an investment only to your superannuation fund. It is your responsibility to ensure your superannuation fund runs appropriately and for example pays the pension to your members, pays relevant PAYG tax relating to members under age 60, lodges annual returns and undertakes appropriate actuarial reviews.

2. Suncorp Classic Pension – Lifetime option

The Lifetime option is a complying pension that enables you to receive a regular pension for the rest of your life which is fully indexed to the Consumer Price Index (CPI), to maintain its purchasing power.

Why use a complying pension?

The Lifetime option provides you with the following benefits:

- Regular payments for your life, or your reversionary beneficiary's life if you have nominated one.
- Potential entitlement to greater social security benefits from favourable treatment under the assets test for determining age pension entitlements (this pension is 100% assets test exempt).
- Tax effective income, with pension payments not being subject to income tax if you are age 60 or over.
- Income which is fully indexed to inflation in July each year, as measured by the CPI. If there is negative inflation, your payments will not reduce.

How long do payments continue for?

Payments continue until you (or your reversionary beneficiary, if one was selected) die, or (where approved by us and only for customers who opened their account before 1 September 1999) the investment is withdrawn. Periodically, you will be asked to provide proof that you and your reversionary beneficiary, if one is included, remain alive. We may be forced to suspend your pension payments if you do not respond to these requests.

Reversionary nomination

A reversionary nomination allows your beneficiary to tax-effectively continue to receive your pension payments when you die. You can only nominate a reversionary beneficiary at the time you opened your account and because pension payments have been based partly on the life expectancy of this person, you cannot change the nomination.

At the time of choosing a reversionary, you would have selected for pension payments to either continue at the same level, or 70% of their level at the time of your death.

Investments

The objective of the Lifetime option is to provide you with the security of receiving regular pension payments over your lifetime.

We have entered into a group insurance policy with SLSL which fully secures the payment of your regular pension entitlement.

Neither you, nor the reversionary beneficiary (if one is included) have any rights in relation to the group insurance policy.

No additional investments can be made now your account has been set-up.

Death benefits

No death benefit is payable upon your, or your reversionary beneficiary's death (if one has been chosen). As death benefits are not applicable, beneficiary nominations no longer apply to this product, except for any reversionary nominations already in place.

Withdrawals

No withdrawals can be requested except if you opened your account before 1 September 1999 and intend to invest in a similar product offered by another institution. In such case, we will consider your request and the withdrawal value of your remaining investment will be calculated as the present value of future pension payments that would be expected to be paid. The value of future pension payments will be calculated using the higher of either the prevailing repurchase rate (ie current rate plus 0.25%) at the date of the withdrawal or the original issue rate. This may result in some loss of capital.

As a consequence, your investment in the Lifetime option is not guaranteed. The value of your investment can rise or fall. However, if you do not withdraw, you (or your reversionary beneficiary) will receive pension payments for life.

3. Suncorp Classic Pension – CPI option

The CPI option provides you with a regular pension for up to 25 years which is fully linked to rises in the Consumer Price Index (CPI).

Why use the CPI option?

The CPI option provides you with the following benefits:

- Regular payments for the term selected by you.
- If you chose the nil withdrawal option, a complying pension that enables potential entitlement to greater social security benefits from favourable treatment under the assets test for determining age pension entitlements (the nil withdrawal option is 100% assets test exempt).
- Tax effective income, with pension payments not being subject to income tax if you are age 60 or over.
- Income which is fully linked to inflation in July each year, as measured by rises in the CPI. If there is negative inflation, your payments will not reduce.

Choice of withdrawal options – Nil or anytime. The anytime withdrawal option provides you with flexibility but does not potentially entitle you to greater social security benefits.

How long do payments continue for?

Payments continue until the end of the term selected by you, or (if you selected the withdrawal option) the investment is withdrawn. Periodically, you will be asked to provide proof that you and the reversionary beneficiary, if one is included, remain alive. We may be forced to suspend your pension payments if you do not respond to these requests.

Investments

The CPI option is suitable for the security conscious investor who requires a regular income through the receipt of pension payments. We ensure that the pension payments you receive in any year (excluding withdrawals) do not fall below the payments that were made in the preceding year.

No additional investments can be made now your account has been set-up.

Withdrawals

If you selected the nil withdrawal option, no withdrawals are possible.

If you selected the withdrawal option, you can withdraw your money at any time, including partial withdrawals. In such case, the withdrawal value of your remaining investment will be calculated as the present value of future pension payments that would be expected to be paid. The value of future pension payments will be calculated using the higher of either the prevailing repurchase rate (ie current rate plus 0.25%) at the date of the withdrawal or the original issue rate. This may result in some loss of capital. The value of your investment can rise or fall.

What happens to your money if you die?

A reversionary nomination allows your beneficiary to tax-effectively continue to receive your pension payments when you die. You can only nominate a reversionary beneficiary at the time you opened your account. Once in place, you cannot change the nomination.

- If you have not nominated a reversionary beneficiary, you can instead nominate one or more dependants or your estate, to receive part or all of the remaining value of your investment as a lump sum if you die. There are rules around who you can nominate to receive your benefits on your death – but it must be paid to your estate or one or more of your dependants. A dependant includes a:
 - spouse (legal and de facto – including same-sex partners)
 - child under 18 years or under 25 years if financially dependent
 - Child with a disability
 - person in an interdependency relationship with you, and
 - financial dependant.

Make sure your beneficiary nomination is valid

Under superannuation law and the terms of the Trust Deed, we can pay your super benefits if you die to the beneficiary you've validly nominated.

For your nomination to be valid:

- each beneficiary must be a dependant and/or your Legal Personal Representative (ie the person who administers your estate on your death) at the time of your death, and
- if there is more than one beneficiary, the way you want the total distribution of your super benefits to be made between them must be clearly stated in percentages, and the total must add up to 100 percent.

Even though your beneficiary nominations won't expire, it's still a good idea to keep them up to date so they remain current and clearly reflect your wishes – especially after your circumstances change with things like marriage, divorce or when a beneficiary stops being dependent on you.

If you'd like more information about beneficiaries or how to make or update a nomination, speak to your financial adviser or give us a call.

4. Suncorp Pooled Superannuation Trust

This product is provided for trustees of self-managed superannuation funds who wish to pay a complying lifetime pension to their members.

Only trustees of regulated superannuation funds were eligible to invest. As a trustee, when you opened your account, you confirmed that you had applied to APRA and/or the ATO, to become a regulated fund for the purposes of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (SIS). In the event that your fund becomes non-complying, you must notify us immediately.

Why use a Pooled Superannuation Trust?

Investing in the PST gives you access to the following benefits:

- Enables you to provide a payment for the life of a specified member or their reversionary beneficiary if you have nominated one.
- Any remaining investment value, at the time of the specified member's death (or their reversionary if one has been chosen) will be paid to your fund.
- Access investments which allow you to provide pensions to your members which enable them to obtain taxation and a potentially greater entitlement to social security benefits through a 100% assets test exemption.
- Reduce uncertainty as to whether you can meet your pension payment obligations to members.
- Provide income which is fully indexed to inflation in July each year, as measured by the Consumer Price Index.

How long do payments continue for?

Payments continue until the specified member (and the reversionary beneficiary, if one was selected) dies, or, the investment is withdrawn, where approved by us. Periodically, you will be asked to provide proof that the specified member and the reversionary beneficiary, if one is included, remain alive. We may be forced to suspend your pension payments if you do not respond to these requests.

Reversionary nomination

A reversionary nomination allows the specified member's beneficiary to tax-effectively continue to receive their pension payments when they die. You can only nominate a reversionary beneficiary at the time you originally applied for this product and because pension payments have been based partly on the life expectancy of this person, you cannot change the reversionary nomination.

At the time of choosing a reversionary, you will have selected for payments to either continue at the same level or 70% of their level at the time of the death of the specified member or their reversionary beneficiary, whichever occurs first.

Your obligations

Please note that our role is only to enable you to make a lifetime pension payment to your member or their reversionary.

As trustee of your super fund, you must also ensure your trust deed enables the payment of such a pension to your members, that you pay any relevant PAYG tax relating to members under 60 years of age and that you lodge annual returns on behalf of your fund.

SIS also requires trustees of funds providing pensions to be regularly reviewed by an actuary, to assess whether their assets are sufficient to meet their liabilities (ie their obligations to make payments to their members). This function needs to be performed every year and must be obtained prior to the tax return being lodged.

Investments

For each investment in the PST, we invest in a corresponding group insurance policy issued by SLSL. SLSL makes investments to fund their obligations under the policy by investing in growth assets and inflation linked securities. The growth assets may include investments in trusts issued by Suncorp Funds Pty Ltd (ACN 153 008 354) (SFPL) and managed by Suncorp Corporate Services Pty Ltd (ACN 074 966 466) (SCS). The investments are used to make payments and to meet expenses as they arise. An amount is also regularly transferred from these investments to allow for ongoing payments beyond the member's life expectancy. On average the investments are expected to be exhausted at the life expectancy of the member, or the joint life expectancy of the member and their reversionary beneficiary, if one is included.

Neither you, the member or the reversionary beneficiary (if one is included) have any rights in relation to the group insurance policy. Investments may only be undertaken for assets which are invested to meet current pension liabilities. Earnings on these investments are tax exempt. No additional investments can be made now the account has been set-up.

Payments on death and withdrawals

Requests for withdrawals will be considered by us on a case by case basis and will only be permitted where there is no regulatory impediment.

The remaining value of an investment that will be returned to you upon withdrawal (where approved by us) or the later of the death of the specified member or their reversionary (if one is included), will be equal to the value of the investments. This value depends upon the value of the investments held by SLSL in respect of the member.

While payments will continue for the life of the member and the reversionary beneficiary, if one is included, the investment can be exhausted prior to this and are expected to be exhausted at life expectancy. If this occurs, there will be no remaining investments to be returned upon withdrawal (where approved by us) or death. Consequently, the remaining value of the investment that will be returned is limited and may be nil.

5. Risks of super

While we provide the nominated pension payments for the life of the member (or their nominated beneficiary), or the number of years as originally specified by you, investments of this nature carry certain financial risks that you should be aware of. It's a good idea to consider what these risks might mean to you.

Risk type	What is it?
Credit risk	This is where someone doesn't meet their obligations in, or relating to, an investment. For example, it includes the risk that we or SLSL are unable to make payments.
Inflation risk	If inflation exceeds an investment's return, it will reduce the investment's purchasing power. Inflation risk is more common in low-risk investments such as cash, which generally fluctuate less but potentially provide lower long-term returns. The Classic Pension and the PST remove this risk by investing in inflation linked securities.
Liquidity risk	This arises where an investment can't be easily converted into cash or sold at fair value, at a time when you need it.
Changes in law	Super and tax legislation changes frequently. These changes could affect when you can access your benefits and how they'll be treated upon withdrawal. We'll tell you about any changes we think are likely to affect your investment. Generally, we'll do this through the annual report.
Interest rate risk	The value of fixed interest investments such as bonds will fall when interest rates rise, and vice versa.
Market risk – Applicable to withdrawals only	This can arise due to changes in government or economic policy, interest rates and exchange rates, market sentiment, global events, technological change, environmental conditions or changes in legislation. All these things can adversely affect the financial markets in which your money may be invested and consequently impact the surrender value of your account.

6. Fees and costs

This section of the IB shows the fees and costs that you may be charged.

The fees and costs you may be charged are deducted from your pension payments, the underlying assets of your pension account or from the assets of the PST, or the Fund referable to the Classic Pension as a whole.

Taxes are set out later in this IB. You should read all the information about fees and costs because it's important to understand their impact on your investment. Except where otherwise stated, all fees deducted from your account are in arrears.

You can find more information on fee definitions later in this section.

DID YOU KNOW?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns. For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

TO FIND OUT MORE

If you'd like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) website (moneysmart.gov.au) has a superannuation fee calculator to help you check out the different fee options.

Fees and costs

Type of fee or cost	How and when paid
Investment fee	Nil
Administration fee	Up to 11.99% of the monthly pension payment	This fee is calculated on the value of your monthly pension payment and is deducted from your pension payment, prior to being paid to you. You can see the administration fee that applies to you in the letter we sent to you when we originally sent you this IB or by contacting us.
Buy-sell spread	Nil
Switching fee	Nil
Exit fee	Nil
Advice fees relating to all members investing in a particular investment option	Nil
Other fees and costs	See the Additional explanation of fees and costs section for more information
Indirect cost ratio	Nil

Additional explanation of fees and costs

What is paid to your adviser?

We pay up to 3.3% pa of your monthly pension payment to your adviser's Licensee. This amount is included in the administration fee and is not an additional cost to you. Any applicable GST is not paid by you.

GST and taxes

All fees in this IB are inclusive of GST (less any available reduced input tax credits). Fees are also net of other government duties and taxes. This means that the fees you see are the fees you'll actually pay. For more information on tax, please see Tax in this IB.

Expense recovery and reserves

We can recover any expenses and costs incurred in the administration and management of these products. The PST and the Fund hold a general expense reserve which may be used to meet the expenses associated with their administration, management and operation. Any excess amounts are retained within the reserve to meet future costs.

Changes to fees and costs

We can introduce certain new fees or change the level of current fees you pay at any time. We can do this without your consent, but if we need to do this, we'll notify you at least 30 days before any adverse change.

Payments to and from other parties

Any payments (or benefits) we make to, or receive from, other parties won't be an additional cost to you (unless otherwise stated in this IB or any other material referred to in this IB).

7. Tax

How super is taxed

The table below summarises the ways super can be taxed:

How super is taxed	What is it?
On investment earnings	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• 0%

2. For the 2015/16 financial year.

As tax can be complex, we recommend that you seek advice from a registered tax adviser in respect of your own individual circumstances. The information above is based on our interpretation of tax legislation at the preparation date of the IB (and any other material referred to) and assumes you are an Australian tax resident.

The 2016 Federal Budget has proposed a number of changes to superannuation and its taxation outcomes and any future changes in legislation may affect how your super is ultimately taxed. Give us a call or speak to your adviser if you need any information.

Tax File Numbers (TFN) (Classic Pension only)

We're legally authorised to collect your TFN. And of course we'll keep it confidential and only use it for lawful purposes, including:

- finding or identifying your super funds
- calculating tax on any superannuation lump sums
- providing your TFN and other information to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO)
- providing your TFN to your future super fund trustee or retirement savings account provider if you're transferring your account.

We won't pass on your TFN to another super fund if you write and tell us not to, and we won't disclose your TFN to anyone else.

It is not compulsory to provide your TFN, however if you choose not to provide your TFN there may be tax consequences.

Other important information about tax

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Any expenses we incur from administering the Classic Pension and the PST may be subject to GST. If we can claim a credit for the GST paid, we may pass the benefit on to you.

Tax and government charges

Taxes, duties and levies we incur are recovered from your account or directly from the assets of the investment options (where the expenses are investment or administration costs) before unit prices are set, or from your account.

8. Other important information

Our service standards for investment transactions

Our service standards apply from when we receive your complete instructions.

If we receive a complete investment transaction request from you by 12pm (noon) (Sydney time) 5 business days before month end, you'll receive the unit price effective for the investment option for that month end and will receive the proceeds within 30 days of the end of the month.

If we receive a completed investment transaction request after 12pm (noon) (Sydney time) 5 business days before month end, we'll process the request using the investment option unit prices effective for the following month end.

The 12pm cut-off applies to all withdrawal requests.

Although we try to always meet our service standards, the unit price used to process your transactions could differ from the effective unit price for that day or processing your transactions may be delayed in some circumstances including if:

- You've provided incomplete or incorrect information
- There is a delay in receipt of confirmation or payment from an external investment manager
- Carrying out the transaction may materially impact other account holders
- We receive a direction from a lawful authority to suspend or amend the transaction
- The investment manager suspends redemptions from your underlying investment
- It is close to the end of the financial year, or
- There are any other delays in redeeming assets.

Please note that 30 days notice should be provided to us if you wish to switch or withdraw more than $250,000.

We may from time to time review our service standards.

These products are an illiquid investment

A request to withdraw won't be completed until monies invested in the underlying asset are received from the manager. This may take more than 30 days. These products are classified as 'illiquid investments' for superannuation purposes in that their proceeds can't be rolled over, withdrawn or transferred within 30 days of receiving your request. By investing in these products, you acknowledge that if withdrawn prior to term it is an illiquid investment for superannuation purposes and that we're not required to rollover or transfer the amount within 30 days of receiving your request.

The ATO may instruct us to transfer the benefits of temporary residents to the ATO if:

- A temporary resident has left Australia, and
- Their temporary visa expired or was cancelled more than six months before they left.

If we're instructed to transfer your benefits to the ATO, your account will be closed. We're not required to issue an exit statement under these circumstances as it's unlikely to reach you.

Once your benefit is transferred to the ATO, it can only be accessed if you meet a condition of release.
