Direct Debit Request (DDR) service agreement

This DDR Service Agreement forms part of the terms of the Direct Debit Request (DDR) and should be read in conjunction with this form.

DDR

You can arrange to pay your superannuation (super) by DDR.

We'll process a direct debit to the account nominated on the DDR for the amount of the super contribution (plus any applicable government charges, GST and processing fees) on the date that it's due.

Changing your DDR Authority

We'll give you 14 days notice if we change any of the terms of the DDR.

Deferring, stopping or cancelling your DDR

You can change your debiting arrangement by informing us in writing, at least 7 working days before the debiting date for any of the following:

- altering the DDR;
- deferring a drawing;
- stopping an individual debit;
- suspending the DDR; and
- cancelling the debiting arrangement completely

DDR dispute resolution

If you wish to dispute a DDR transaction, you can contact the financial institution where your account to be debited is held, or contact us and we'll arrange for your disputed transaction to be investigated and where appropriate, for a correction to be made.

Suncorp Super
GPO Box 2585
Brisbane QLD 4001

super@suncorp.com.au

If we're unable to resolve the dispute to your satisfaction, you should contact the financial institution where the account to be debited is held to complete and lodge a DDR Customer Claim Form.

Non-business days

If your DDR falls due on a weekend or public holiday in Sydney, we'll process it on the next business day. If you're uncertain of the date your DDR will be processed, you should contact your financial institution.

Returned or dishonoured DDRs

If your DDR is dishonoured or returned unpaid by your financial institution for any reason, we reserve the right to recover the funds from you.

Clear funds

You should ensure that you have sufficient clear funds in your account to enable the DDR to be paid by your financial institution.

Your records

We won't disclose any details of your DDR to any person or corporation unless requested to do so by law, or unless the information is required in relation to a disputed transaction.

Your account

You should be aware that some financial institutions may not allow DDR to be processed to certain types of accounts. You should check your account details against a recent statement from your financial institution, or check with your financial institution to ensure that a DDR can be processed to your account.

If you wish to make enquiries about your DDR

You can contact us by emailing super@suncorp.com.au or by writing to:
