

Summary of changes to Internet Banking Terms and Conditions

Updated 15 November 2018, effective 16 January 2019.

We have made changes to the Internet Banking Terms and Conditions.

These changes come into effect on 16 January 2019.

This document is designed to provide a summary of the changes we have made to the Internet Banking Terms and Conditions. You can access a complete version of the Internet Banking Terms and Conditions from <https://www.suncorp.com.au/banking/help-support/ways-to-bank/online/terms.html>

The following clauses have been altered:

Clause Number	Changes Made
5. Your Secret Codes	— Removed reference to External Transfer Password (ETP).
7. Withdrawal Limits	As a result of an increased Transaction Limit we have introduced, the following changes have been made: <ul style="list-style-type: none">— Renamed the clause from Daily Limits to Withdrawal Limits— Included detailed information relating to the two types of limits which apply when processing payments— Provided a table which details the list of transactions which utilise the daily transaction limit and daily limits— Clarified what will happen when you exceed your daily limit.
14. Security Token	— Added a new clause which details that a Security Token Code is required when processing transactions above the Transaction Limit of $3,000.
17. External Transfers and Online Telegraphic Transfer	— Removed references to External Transfer Password (ETP)
18. Business Payments
29. Definitions

From 15 November 2018 the Internet Banking Terms and Conditions will be available at <https://www.suncorp.com.au/banking/help-support/ways-to-bank/online/terms.html>

If you have any questions regarding these changes or would like a printed copy of the new Internet Banking Terms and Conditions, please contact us on 13 11 55.