Please keep this PDS and your schedule in a safe place. Your schedule is issued to you based on the information provided by you, to us on your application for insurance.

If the change is a material or significant one, we will generally notify you within 3 months of the change occurring.

We may also make improvements to your policy without any increase to your premium. If we make a change to your policy which in your opinion was adverse to you, we will, if you make a claim, assess your claim on the terms of the policy before the change took place.

If you are issued a Suncorp Bill Protect policy, you are the sole policy owner and insured person listed on the schedule. You are covered subject to the terms and conditions of your policy 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. If premiums payable under the policy are paid (please refer to Section 7 Your premium), your Disability Benefit will continue until your 75th birthday, and your Redundancy Benefit (if applicable) will continue until your 65th birthday unless your policy stops earlier (please refer to Section 5 When does cover stop?).

1 Who can apply?

When you apply for Suncorp Bill Protect, you can choose to be covered for the Disability Benefit only, or you can also select the optional Redundancy Benefit.

You can apply for Suncorp Bill Protect if you:

- are aged between 18 and 60 (inclusive);
- are an Australian or New Zealand citizen or permanent resident and residing in Australia at the time of application; and
- received this PDS in Australia.

In addition to the above, if you are applying for the optional Redundancy Benefit, you also need to be working at least 20 hours a week in your gainful occupation, averaged over the last 3 consecutive months immediately prior to your policy commencement date.

When applying for the Disability Benefit, we consider certain factors (such as your age, occupational duties as well as height and weight) when determining the premium you pay for this cover.

No medical tests are required when you apply and, once your application is accepted and we receive correct payment details, you will be covered for the benefits listed on your schedule 24 hours a day, 365 days a year while your policy remains active and subject to the terms and conditions of your policy.

Suncorp Bill Protect is a single life policy only. As the sole owner of the policy, you will also be the only insured person. Where we agree, you may apply for the Redundancy Benefit at a date after your first commence this policy.

2 Your cooling off period

You have 30 days from the date you first commence this policy to check that this insurance meets your needs. This is the cooling off period.

If you wish, you can cancel your policy during the cooling off period by contacting us. If you notify us verbally, you will need to answer certain questions to confirm your identity. Provided you have not made a claim, you will receive a full refund of any money you have paid.

3 Details of cover and benefits under this policy

This section explains the benefits available under Suncorp Bill Protect.

3.1 Disability Benefit

When do we pay the disability benefit?

The monthly benefit will be payable from the end of the waiting period if, solely due to sickness or injury, you continue to be disabled (as defined under What does disabled mean? in this section), and you have satisfied the waiting period requirements (refer to Section 3.8 Waiting period).

Where the Disability Benefit is payable for a period of less than a month, the benefit payment will be calculated as 1/30th of the monthly benefit for each day you are disabled.

Unless cover ceases earlier (please refer to Section 5 When does cover stop?), ongoing benefit payments will cease at the earliest of the following:

- your benefit period ends;
- you are no longer disabled;
- your 75th birthday; or
- you die.

There are some circumstances when we won't pay, please refer to Section 6 When we won't pay.

What does disabled mean?

We will consider you disabled if, solely due to sickness or injury, you:

- are not working in any occupation, whether remunerated or not (including volunteering); and
- are under the care, treatment and following the advice of a medical practitioner; and
- satisfy the disability definition in the table below based on your age and the corresponding criteria that applies to you.

Age*	Criteria	Disability definition
18 – 64*	You have been working in your primary occupation for 20 hours or more per week. We will base this on the average number of hours you have worked per week over the last 3 months, prior to the date you meet the disability definition.	You are unable to perform all the important income producing duties of your primary occupation.
	You have been working in your primary occupation for less than 20 hours per week. We will base this on the average number of hours you have worked per week over the last 3 months, prior to the date you meet the disability definition.	You are unable to perform at least 3 of the 5 listed domestic duties (see Section 15 Glossary).
	You have been primarily performing domestic duties prior to the date you meet the disability definition.	You are unable to perform at least 3 of the 5 listed domestic duties (see Section 15 Glossary).
65 – 74*	You have reached your first policy anniversary immediately following your 65th birthday whether working or not.	You are unable to perform at least 2 of the 5 listed activities of daily living (see Section 15 Glossary) without the physical assistance of someone else.

*Age at last policy anniversary

Any sickness or injury that causes you to be disabled must be diagnosed by a medical practitioner.

The age group that will apply to you is based on your age at last policy anniversary.

What happens if you are on leave at the time of your disability?

If you have been on leave such as; annual, long service, parental, sabbatical or leave of absence for up to 3 months at the date of your disability, your claim will be assessed based on your average number of hours worked over the 3 months immediately prior to the commencement of your leave to determine the applicable criteria and corresponding disability definition you will be assessed under (refer to the table under What does disabled mean? in Section 3.1).

If you have been on leave for more than 3 months at the date of your disability, your claim will be assessed against one of the following disability conditions (whichever applies) when determining whether you are disabled:

- you are unable to perform at least 3 of the 5 listed domestic duties; or
- if you are over age 65, you are unable to perform at least 2 of the 5 listed activities of daily living.

What happens if you turn age 65 while you are on claim?

If you are receiving benefits and the benefit period overlaps the policy anniversary occurring immediately after your 65th birthday, we will reassess you under the different disability condition (refer to the table What does disabled mean? in Section 3.1) to determine whether, immediately after the policy anniversary date, you are entitled to continue receiving a monthly benefit. In these circumstances your claim will only continue to be paid if you are unable to perform at least 2 of the 5 listed activities of daily living, without the physical assistance of someone else (as defined in Section 15 Glossary).

For example: Gloria is 64 years of age and makes a claim on her Bill Protect policy in January. As Gloria works less than 20 hours per week (averaged over the last 3 months) her claim is assessed against her inability to perform at least 3 of the 5 listed domestic duties.

Gloria's 65th birthday is in March and the policy anniversary after that age is on June 24th. Following Gloria's policy anniversary on June 24th the disability condition her claim will be assessed against is her inability to perform at least 2 of the 5 listed activities of daily living, without the physical assistance of someone else.

What happens if you are overseas at the time of your disability?

If you are overseas at the date of your disability or at any time while you are disabled, your monthly benefit will only be payable for a maximum of 2 months, but will recommence when you return to Australia as long as you are still disabled (see Section 3.1 Disability Benefit, When do we pay the Disability Benefit?) and an event has not occurred that ceases payment of your monthly benefit (other than being overseas).

Recurring Disability

If you suffer from the same or related sickness or injury within 6 months of your last monthly benefit being payable, your cover is still active, and you continue to be disabled, we will consider your disablement as recurring and therefore will recommence benefit payments without applying a new waiting period.

Any benefit payments will be added to the remaining benefit period to ensure the maximum payment under the benefit period is not exceeded.

If you do not make a full recovery, no monthly benefit will be payable for the same or related sickness or injury for which the previous claim was paid in full; i.e. for the entire benefit period.

Choosing your disability monthly benefit

Depending on the level of cover you think you need, when you apply you can choose a monthly benefit between $1,000 and $4,000 (inclusive). The monthly benefit that applies to you will be stated in your schedule.

If you are required to pay the minimum monthly premium, the level of cover you chose may be automatically increased as a result. Refer to Section 7.2 Minimum Monthly Premium.

Your benefit period

The benefit period is the maximum period of time during which we will pay your monthly benefit while you are disabled for the same or related sickness or injury. When you apply, you can choose 6, 12, or 24 months. The benefit period that applies to you will be stated in your schedule.

3.2 Redundancy Benefit

You are only covered for the Redundancy Benefit if it is shown on your schedule.

The Redundancy Benefit is designed to provide a monthly benefit to assist if you become involuntarily unemployed.

Eligibility to claim under the Redundancy Benefit starts 6 months after the policy commencement date – the first 6 months is called the no claim period for this benefit. If you become involuntarily unemployed during the no claim period, you will not be eligible to claim under the Redundancy Benefit. When the Redundancy Benefit is renewed, the 6 month no claim period does not start again.

After the no claim period has ended, the monthly benefit will be payable from the end of the waiting period if you become involuntarily unemployed as a result of either:

- involuntary redundancy; or
- dismissal by no choice of your own; or
- a business you have a beneficial interest in is placed into insolvency administration; or
- your fixed term employment contract of 12 months or more ceasing prior to the agreed termination date by no choice of your own;

and you continue to be unemployed after the waiting period.

What happens if you are on leave when you become involuntarily unemployed?

If you have been on leave such as; annual, long service, parental, sabbatical or leave of absence for less than 12 months at the date of your involuntary unemployment, your average hours worked per week will be assessed for the three consecutive months immediately prior to the date you commenced leave.

If you have been on leave for 12 months or more at the date of your involuntary unemployment, the monthly benefit will not be payable.

Your redundancy benefit period

The maximum total benefit period is 3 months for any one claim while you remain unemployed. The total maximum benefit claimable for the same insured person is 12 months; for example, 4 lots of 3 months.

If the monthly benefit is payable for less than a month, payments will be calculated as 1/30th of the monthly benefit for each day you are unemployed.

Unless cover ceases earlier (Please refer to Section 5 When does cover stop? for when the Redundancy Benefit under this policy will cease) ongoing monthly benefit payments will cease when:

- you return to work;
- you are no longer actively seeking employment
- your benefit period ends;
- your 65th birthday; or
- you die.

There are some circumstances when we will not pay the Redundancy Benefit, please see Section 6.0 When we won't pay.

Choosing your redundancy monthly benefit

Your monthly benefit for the Redundancy Benefit does not need to be the same as your Disability Benefit. You can choose to insure from as little as $1,000 per month, up to $4,000 per month. The monthly benefit that applies to you will be stated in the schedule and each year on your renewal notice.

3.3 Premium Pause Benefit

To help with affordability, the Premium Pause Benefit allows you to stop paying premiums for up to 3 months each year you hold your policy.

During this time, your policy continues (subject to your policy also continuing to be renewed if you have the Redundancy Benefit) but no cover will be provided by your policy for the Disability Benefit or the Redundancy Benefit. This means that any sickness, injury or notice of involuntary unemployment that occurs during the period of the Premium Pause Benefit will not be covered.

You must contact us to activate the Premium Pause Benefit. Premiums must have been paid for the previous 9 consecutive months and the policy must have no outstanding premium payable at the time of the request.

After the Premium Pause Benefit period has ended and premiums have recommenced, you will be eligible for all the benefits you had selected under the policy, in accordance with their terms.

The Premium Pause Benefit cannot be applied while you are on claim or during your waiting period.

3.4 Waiver of Premium Benefit

If we are paying you a monthly benefit while you are either disabled or involuntarily unemployed, we will waive your Suncorp Bill Protect premiums for the period while you are on claim.

The Waiver of Premium Benefit does not apply to premiums paid during the waiting period.

Unless cover ceases earlier (please refer to Section 5 When does cover stop?), the Waiver of Premium Benefit will end on the earliest of:

- the end of your benefit period;
- the date you are no longer disabled;
- the date you are no longer unemployed;
- the date you are no longer actively seeking employment; or
- the date your policy ends.

While you are receiving the Waiver of Premium Benefit you cannot apply for any increase to the benefits under your Suncorp Bill Protect policy.

3.5 Automatic Indexation Benefit

To help keep your insurance in line with inflation, we will automatically increase your monthly benefit each year on your policy anniversary by the greater of the indexation factor or 5%. Unless you decline the increase, we will recalculate your premium to reflect the increase as a result of the indexation factor (and your age for the Disability Benefit) and we will advise you of your new premium prior to your policy anniversary.

The increase will not apply if your policy anniversary occurs while you are receiving monthly benefit payments from us under this policy.

You can ask us not to apply the indexation factor to your monthly benefit. If you request this, your monthly benefit will not change, however your premium will generally still change each year, such as increasing because of age.

Unless cover ceases earlier (please refer to Section 5 When does cover stop?), the Automatic Indexation Benefit stops on your 75th birthday for the Disability Benefit and on your 65th birthday for the Redundancy Benefit.

3.6 Maximum benefit

The most we will pay under your Suncorp Bill Protect policy is the monthly benefit.

The maximum amount we will pay across all Bill Protect policies issued by us for the same insured person is $4,000 per month (plus indexation – please refer to Section 3.5 Automatic Indexation Benefit).

3.7 Concurrent benefits

We will only pay one benefit at a time under your Bill Protect policy. If you are eligible to receive both Disability and Redundancy Benefits under this policy at the same time, we will pay the benefit with the highest monthly benefit. For example, if your Disability Benefit is $4,000 per month and your Redundancy Benefit is $3,000 per month and you are eligible to receive benefits under Disability and Redundancy Benefits at the same time, we will pay the higher monthly benefit, in this case your $4,000 Disability Benefit.

If the monthly benefits are equal, we will pay the benefit with the longest benefit period, that being the Disability Benefit, while you continue to be disabled.

3.8 Waiting period

Your Suncorp Bill Protect policy has a 30 day waiting period. This waiting period is the time that must elapse before a monthly benefit can start to be paid.

If you are eligible to be paid a benefit, payments are made monthly in arrears after the end of the waiting period. This means your first benefit payment would be 60 days after the start of the waiting period. No benefit will be paid during the waiting period.

For the Disability Benefit, the waiting period starts when both of the following events have occurred:

- you first consult a medical practitioner for the sickness or injury giving rise to your claim; and
- you cease all work, activities, or household duties (as applicable to your disability definition) due to that sickness or injury.

You must be disabled for the entire waiting period.

For the Redundancy Benefit, the waiting period starts when both of the following events have occurred:

- you become involuntarily unemployed; and
- you are actively seeking employment.

You must have been not working and actively seeking employment for the entire waiting period. No benefit will be paid during the waiting period. In addition to the waiting period, there is also a no claim period applicable to the Redundancy Benefit. For further details see Section 3.2 Redundancy Benefit.

4 When does cover start?

As long as you satisfy the eligibility requirements (please refer to Section 1 Who can apply?) cover will commence on the date we accept your application and receive correct payment details. This date will be shown on your schedule as your policy commencement date.

Once we accept your application for cover under Suncorp Bill Protect, we will send you a schedule confirming our acceptance and your policy commencement date. If you take out the Redundancy Benefit after you first start your policy, your Redundancy Benefit may have a different policy commencement date to the remainder of your policy.

5 When does cover stop?

All cover will stop under this policy on the earliest of the following events:

- your 75th birthday;
- your request to cancel the policy;
- the date your policy is cancelled due to the non-payment of outstanding premiums; or
- the date of your death.

In addition to the above, cover under the Redundancy Benefit will also stop on the earliest of:

- your 65th birthday;
- the date you have been paid for a total of 12 months; or
- the date you or the insurer choose not to renew this benefit.

All benefit payments will cease when cover stops.

We will not consider any claim, unless the event giving rise to the claim occurred while your policy was still active. For the Redundancy Benefit, a no claim period applies. We may also cancel this policy on any grounds permitted under relevant law by telling you in writing.

If you have the Redundancy Benefit we will advise you prior to each policy anniversary whether we will:

- offer renewal of the Redundancy Benefit;
- offer to renew the Redundancy Benefit but on different terms and conditions; or
- not renew the Redundancy Benefit.

If we offer renewal and your premium payment continues, the Redundancy Benefit will continue automatically for a further one (1) year at each policy anniversary. Payment of your next premium payment is deemed to be acceptance of an offer of renewal for that year. When the Redundancy Benefit is renewed, the 6 month no claim period does not start again.

6 When we won't pay

6.1 Pre-existing Conditions

Suncorp Bill Protect will not pay a claim for the Disability Benefit that is directly or indirectly related to a pre-existing condition.

A pre-existing condition is:

- a medical condition that you have been diagnosed with but not recovered from; or

7 Your premium

Your premium pays for your cover, government fees and charges and administration costs.

The premium you pay is determined by multiplying your monthly benefit by the applicable premium rate (including any loading that may apply for your height and weight). The premium is also subject to a minimum monthly premium amount based on the benefit period you have chosen. Your premium rate for the Disability Benefit is dependent on the following factors: your age, gender, smoking status, benefit period and your occupation. Your premium for the Redundancy Benefit is dependent on your monthly benefit.

Your premium for the Disability Benefit will not change for 12 months from your policy commencement date. After this period, your premium will generally increase each year with age and increases in the monthly benefit as a result of the Automatic Indexation Benefit as explained in Section 3.5. We can also change the premium rate for all policies of the same kind by providing you with at least 30 days' written notice. If we adjust our premium rates, you will be charged the new premium from your next policy anniversary. For the Redundancy Benefit, any change to your premium for the next 12 months will be shown on your renewal notice.

If you need to change your occupation or smoking status, please contact us.

Premiums received in relation to the Disability Benefit are paid into in our No. 1 statutory fund. A policy issued in relation to Suncorp Bill Protect does not participate in any surplus arising in our statutory funds.

Premiums are subject to Commonwealth and state taxes and/or charges, including GST and stamp duty. The amount of these taxes and/or charges will be shown on your policy schedule and renewal notices.

For a quote, please contact us on 1800 642 594 or go to www.suncorp.com.au/billprotect.

7.1 Large Monthly Benefit Discount

With the Large Monthly Benefit Discount, the higher the monthly benefit you choose, the larger the discount that applies to the premium for your Disability Benefit. The following table shows how the discounts will be applied:

Monthly Disability Benefit range	Premium Discount
Less than $2,000	0%
$2,000 - $2,999	5%
$3,000 - $3,999	10%
$4,000 or more (after indexation)	15%

Please note that these discounts are subject to minimum monthly premiums (see Section 7.2)

7.2 Minimum Monthly Premium for the Disability Benefit

For each benefit period that you can select, a minimum monthly premium applies as outlined in the following table:

Disability Benefit Period	Minimum Monthly Premium
6 months	$16.00
12 months	$18.00
24 months	$20.00

This means that the premium that you pay for your cover will never be less than the applicable minimum monthly premium, even after taking into account any discount that may apply to you. If the minimum monthly premium applies to the cover you have selected, we will automatically increase your monthly benefit to the maximum available for that premium.

7.3 Paying your premium

You can choose to pay your premium fortnightly, monthly or annually from the financial institution or credit card you nominate and you have up to 14 days (or 30 days if you pay monthly) from the date each premium is due to pay your premium. If you do not pay a premium within this period, we will send a notice to you at the address last advised to us specifying the date we will cancel the policy without any refund of premium. We will not be liable for any claims after the date of cancellation.

If we cancel your policy due to non-payment of premiums, you can request that your policy be reinstated by contacting us within 30 days of the policy's cancellation date. In order for us to consider your reinstatement, all outstanding premiums must be paid by you. Reinstatements are not guaranteed and, if approved, will be confirmed in writing.

8 Taxation

The tax treatment of Suncorp Bill Protect will depend on your individual circumstances. If you are working, premiums are usually tax deductible and any benefit payments received are generally assessable for tax purposes. If, however, you are not working, premiums are usually not tax deductible and any benefit payments received are generally not assessable for tax purposes.

These comments are a guide only and do not take into account changes in taxation laws or your particular circumstances. Please ask your tax adviser or the Australian Taxation Office about your own circumstances.

GST does not apply to the Disability Benefit but it does to the Redundancy Benefit. If tax laws are altered, we reserve the right to increase premiums to reflect any applicable GST or any other Government taxes and charges that may be introduced. Any increase will be in accordance with our legal obligations.

9 Risks

You should be aware of the risks involved before buying any insurance policy. Please read this PDS carefully before making any decision regarding this policy or the extent of cover you require. Some of the risks associated with holding this insurance policy include:

- your policy may not suit your needs;
- your monthly benefit may be insufficient;
- a monthly benefit may not be paid in the event of a claim if an exclusion applies; and
- if you are receiving a Disability Benefit and at your first policy anniversary immediately following your 65th birthday you do not meet the applicable disability criteria, your benefit payments will cease.

Although we do not offset any other payments you might receive for disability, other insurance policies you hold may offset our payments. You should check with your other insurance providers or financial adviser if you hold other policies for disability.

It's important that the policy meets your needs both now and in the future. You may need to seek assistance from a financial adviser if the terms are not consistent with your needs or do not suit your personal circumstances.

14 Your Duty of Disclosure

Life Insurance - Disability Benefit

Before you enter into a contract of life insurance with us, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to us every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that is relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

Your duty, however, does not require disclosure of a matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by us;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that we know, or in the ordinary course of our business, ought to know; or
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by us.

Non-disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure and we would not have entered into the contract if the failure had not occurred, we may avoid the contract within 3 years of entering into it.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may avoid the contract at any time.

We may elect not to avoid your contract but to vary it by:

- reducing the sum insured in accordance with a formula that takes into account the premium that would have been payable if you had complied with your duty of disclosure; or

- placing us in the position in which we would have been in if you had complied with your duty of disclosure.

The options to vary the contract are available to us while the contract remains in force.

This duty continues to apply until the insurer notifies you that the risk has been accepted. It also applies when you extend, vary or reinstate a contract of life insurance.

General Insurance – Redundancy Benefit

Before you enter into a general insurance contract, you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms.

- You have this duty until we agree to insure you.
- You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.
- You do not need to tell us anything that:
 - reduces the risk we insure you for; or
 - is common knowledge; or
 - we know or should know as an insurer; or
 - we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.
