Suncorp Life Insurance distribution requirements

Specify any conditions and restrictions on retail product distribution conducted in relation to the product (distribution conditions), other than a condition or restriction imposed by or under another provision.

Distribution of product with personal advice

 Financial advisers will typically consider a customer's personal circumstances, needs and objectives when making a recommendation to purchase or to continue to hold Suncorp Life Insurance.

Distribution of product without personal advice

- Suncorp Life Insurance may be distributed without personal financial product advice (Suncorp Life Insurance may be purchased online or over the phone in this manner). For distribution without personal advice, distributors should have in place, where appropriate, processes as applicable, relating to call scripts (e.g. call centres), training, monitoring and quality assurance.
- Certain features of Suncorp Life Insurance are not available for certain straight through online purchases.

Why these distribution conditions and restrictions will make it more likely that the consumers who take up the product are in the target market.

Distribution under a personal advice model

 Consumers that obtain personal advice are more likely to be in the target market for this product because advisers have a duty to act in their best interest when providing personal advice.

Distribution not under personal advice

- Consumers are more likely to be in the target market if distributors distribute the product in alignment with the issuer's distribution conditions relating to the relevant distribution channel, including where applicable and appropriate having processes in place in relation to scripting, training, monitoring and quality assurance.
- Entry criteria for Suncorp Life Insurance will broadly control how consumers in the target market may access the product.
