

'Putting Members' Interests First' reforms

From 1 April 2020, the rules for when insurance in your super account is applied changed. These Government rules aim to protect Australians' superannuation balances from being eroded by unwanted insurance premiums.

From 1 April 2020, if you are:

Under 25,
regardless of account
balance

OR

Have a balance
below $6,000

You should consider the insurance offer available to you in your super. Refer to the relevant PDS or seek professional financial advice.

We cannot provide default insurance cover until these conditions are satisfied, unless you elect to have the cover. If you would like default insurance applied to your account before you meet these conditions, you need to advise us by completing an Insurance Election Form.

Everyone's insurance needs are different.

It's really important to understand how much insurance you have, how much you need and if it suits your specific circumstances.

Check your current insurance
