Great reasons why you should combine your super

If you've had a few jobs, you've probably got a few different super accounts. One of the easiest ways to simplify your finances, and potentially boost the amount of money you'll have when you retire, is to combine multiple super accounts into one.

Important things to remember

- Read this Information booklet carefully and follow the instructions on the enclosed form.
- This form cannot be used to open a super account, claim a tax deduction for personal contributions, or transfer benefits under certain circumstances.
- Please be advised any KiwiSaver sourced benefits as part of your super rollover cannot be accepted at this time.
- You may be able to claim a tax deduction for personal contributions made to your previous super provider. To do this, you'll need to complete and provide a s290-170 Notice of intent to claim a tax deduction form to your previous super provider, before you submit a rollover request to us.

- Using this form to transfer your super will not change the fund to which your employer pays your contributions and may close the account you are transferring your super from.
- When you transfer your super, your entitlements under that super fund may cease. You need to consider all relevant information before you make a decision to transfer your super.

We can help you find lost super and combine it into your new account

If you've changed jobs, changed your name or moved house you may have lost super or multiple accounts. If you provide your TFN, we'll do the hard work in finding any lost super and combining it into your new account.

Would you like us to track down any lost super you may have? Yes No i TFN is required, and you must prove your identity, to complete a super search

By consenting you authorise the Trustee to act on your behalf and use your TFN to search for super accounts using the ATO SuperMatch database and your account held by other super funds once you have identified yourself. If the Trustee finds any lost super held with the ATO, you authorise the Trustee to transfer the amount to Suncorp super account nominated on this form where possible. Note: The SuperMatch database is unavailable to Suncorp super members under until March 2021. We'll contact you then and you'll need to identify yourself before SuperMatch can be used. In the interim, you can log onto your myGov account and bring your other super to Suncorp online.
