Personal Contributions – claiming a tax deduction

If you intend to claim a tax deduction for any personal contributions you have made to your account, you will need to let us know before the account is closed.

Financial year ended 30 June

Complete this section if you have not previously lodged a valid notice for this financial year for this account. You will be making the Original notice to claim a tax deduction declaration below for this account when you sign this form.

My personal contributions for this financial year

The amount of personal contributions I will be claiming as a tax deduction

Complete this section if you have previously lodged a valid notice for this financial year for this account. You will be making the Variation of previous valid notice of intent declaration below for this account when you sign this form.

My personal contributions for this financial year

The amount of these personal contributions claimed in my original notice

The amount of these personal contributions I will now be claiming as a tax deduction

Original notice of intention to claim a tax deduction

You declare that at the time of lodging this notice:

- You intend to claim the personal contributions stated as a tax deduction
- You are a current member of the SPSL Master Trust
- The SPSL Master Trust currently holds these contributions and has not begun to pay a superannuation income stream based in whole or part on these contributions
- You have not included any of the contributions in an earlier valid notice.

– You declare that you are lodging this notice at the earlier of either:

- before the end of the day that you lodged your income tax return for the income year in which the personal contributions were made, or
- before the end of the income year following the year in which the contribution was made.

I acknowledge I'm making this Original notice to claim a tax deduction declaration when I sign this form on Page 4.

Variation of previous valid notice of intent

You declare that at the time of lodging this notice:

- You intend to claim the personal contributions stated as a tax deduction
- You are a current member of the SPSL Master Trust
- The SPSL Master Trust currently holds these contributions and has not begun to pay a superannuation income stream based in whole or part on these contributions
- You declare that you wish to vary your previous valid notice for these contributions by reducing the amount you advised in your previous notice and you confirm that either:

- You have lodged your income tax return for the year in which the contribution was made, prior to the end of the following income year, and this variation notice is being lodged before the end of the day on which the return was lodged, or
- You have not yet lodged your income tax return for the relevant year and this variation notice is being lodged on or before 30 June in the financial year following the year in which the personal contributions were made, or
- the ATO has disallowed your claim for a deduction for the relevant year and this notice reduces the amount stated in your previous valid notice by the amount that has been disallowed.

I acknowledge I'm making this Variation of previous valid notice of intent declaration when I sign this form on Page 4.

Contributions tax

Contributions tax at the rate of 15% will be deducted from the amount that you advise you will claim as a tax deduction. Additional tax may apply if your contributions exceed the contributions cap(s), we do not hold your tax file number or you earn over $250,000 a financial year.

Tax file number (TFN) notification

It's important we have your TFN. It's up to you whether you give it to us, and it's not an offence if you don't, but we can't accept any after-tax contributions from you, it might be difficult to find super funds you may have forgotten about, to combine your super in one account, and you may pay more tax on concessional contributions (from pre-tax money - e.g. your superannuation guarantee and salary sacrifice contributions) than you would otherwise. We're legally authorised to collect, use and disclose your TFN under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act. And of course, we'll keep it confidential and only use it for lawful purposes, including finding or identifying your super funds, calculating tax on any superannuation lump sums, providing your TFN and other information to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO), and providing your TFN to your future super fund trustee or retirement savings account provider if you're transferring your account. These lawful purposes may change in the future, as a result of legislative changes. We won't pass on your TFN to another super fund if you write and tell us not to.
