

Reinstate Insurance Cancelled Due To Inactivity

For Suncorp super members

Issued 01 April 2022

Use this form to reinstate your insurance cover if it has been cancelled because your account was inactive*.

An account is inactive if we have not received any contributions or rollovers for the account for a continuous period of 16 months.

The law requires the Trustee to cancel your insurance cover when your super account became inactive. Reinstatement can be requested using this form^.

You can also make an election to retain your insurance cover, so it won't be cancelled even if your account becomes inactive in the future.

^Important note: We must receive your completed form within 59 days of the date of insurance cover cancellation. If we don't receive it within that timeframe you will need to apply for insurance cover by completing an Insurance application form, and your application will be subject to underwriting and acceptance by the insurer.

Tips to help you complete this form

- Complete online or use a blue or black pen and write in CAPITAL letters
- Complete all sections of the form and sign and date on the last page

Reinstate and retain my insurance cover

- I wish to reinstate my insurance cover that was cancelled because my account became inactive*.
- I elect to retain my insurance cover should my account become inactive in the future.

If you do not wish to make this election, please strike out the above words.

This election applies to any Life, Total and permanent disablement (TPD) and Income protection (IP) cover that was in place through my Suncorp Super account and was cancelled due to inactivity within the last 59 days.

*A super account will be inactive if we have not received a contribution or rollover for the account for a continuous period of 16 months.

*Mandatory field

Declaration and signature

By signing this form, I understand that:

- Any insurance cover I had through my Suncorp super account that was cancelled due to my account becoming inactive* will be reinstated provided the Trustee receives my completed form within 59 days of the date of cancellation and I have sufficient balance in my super account to cover any outstanding insurance fees.
- My insurance cover will recommence from the date it was cancelled due to inactivity, subject to any exclusions, loadings and/or conditions which applied to my cover at the time it was cancelled.
- The date this form is received by the Trustee will be the date my election to retain my insurance cover becomes effective and will apply to any cover provided through my Suncorp super account, unless I have struck the words "I elect to retain my insurance cover should my account become inactive in the future" on page one of the form. Once reinstated, insurance cover provided through my Suncorp super account will continue as a result of my election if my account becomes inactive* in the future.
- My election will continue to apply unless I revoke it in writing or meet one of the insurance cancellation conditions listed in the Product Guide for my Suncorp super product, available at suncorp.com.au/super
- Insurance fees will continue to be deducted from my account which may erode my account balance and ultimately reduce my retirement benefits.
- I can apply to amend or request cancellation of my insurance cover at any time.
- Whilst my election remains in place and/or insurance is maintained for my account, even if the balance falls below $6,000, it will not be transferred to the ATO as an inactive low-balance account. I understand that I can obtain more information on inactive low-balance accounts from the ATO's website ato.gov.au
- I've had the opportunity to speak to a financial adviser about my insurance arrangements.
